

Dear members and friends of the Low Country AGO,

Thursday June 20th the chapter had a very successful meeting at Beth Corry's home, including members who participated via Zoom. We were all in favor of continuing on as the Low Country Chapter of the AGO and we have elected a new board:

Officers

Chad Martin	Dean (succeeding Current Dean, Jeff Harbin – photo below)
Debby Graves	Sub Dean (succeeding current Sub Dean, Pam Kane)
Greg Hollinger	Secretary/Treasurer (continuing Secretary/Treasurer)

Chad Martin and Jeff Harbin
Dean's Position Hand-off for 2024-2025

Members at Large succeeding current Members-at-Large: Mollie Nichols, Beth Corry, and Debby Graves

Gary Rakestraw
Pam Kane
Debbie Bauer (Carteret Methodist Church, Beaufort).

Left-to-Right: Greg Stutesman; Debby Graves; Greg Hollinger; Jeff Harbin;
Beth Corry (left picture); Pam Kane (right picture); Chad Martin; Debra Dickensheets

During the month of April the chapter had a very successful weekend of organ music at St. Gregory the Great. We had a silent movie night accompanied by Ken Double, Organist at the Fox Theater in Atlanta. This was followed up by a Pizza and pipes workshop. Approximately 17 youngsters came to learn more about the organ with some mini lessons. The 3rd day was a wonderful, informative organ concert presented by Dr. Pam Kane. Pam put the whole weekend together and the Guild thanks her for all of her hard work.

Our summer series organ concerts will be as follows:

July 11	Americana	at Bluffton UMC at 1:00 to 1:50 pm
August 8	Come to Camp Meetings	at Bluffton UMC at 1:00 to 1:50 pm
September	The Classics	location and date to-be-announced later

We are interested in having many of you play one or two pieces. Pam Kane will be collecting the titles, composers and length of piece. Her email address is: pkane@sgg.cc Please consider playing for one or more of these concerts.

Sincerely,
Debby Graves