ABOUT US

The American Guild of Organists is a national organization. Our local chapter has members who represent a broad spectrum of people, some of whom are organists or pianists, some are church musicians, and many just appreciate the organ and its music. We offer several different membership options and welcome anyone who has any interest in the organ, whether they play an instrument, to join our Chapter.

Organists, choral directors, choir members and clergy are encouraged to join as full members. Others with a general interest in sacred choral music and organ literature are most welcome to support our programs by becoming a 'Friend of the Chapter': 'Friends' receive all chapter mailings, information and invitations to all chapter events.

In addition to programs to improve the conducting and playing skills of our members, our chapter also sponsors recitals, concerts and special programs for the public. Those who are interested in our chapter and activities are warmly invited to contact any of our officers or you may join through the national website www.agohq.org.

LOW COUNTRY CHAPTER MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the American Guild of Organists is to enrich lives through organ and choral music. To achieve this, we:

- Encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music;
- Inspire, educate, and offer certification for organists and choral conductors;
- Provide networking, fellowship, and mutual support;
- Nurture future generations of organists;
- Promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles; and
- Engage wider audiences with organ and choral music.

HYMN

With Pipes of Tin and Wood Make Known Jason A. Wright, organ

Tune: Forest Green

1. With pipes of tin and wood make known the truth each star displays:
creation is a field that's sown
with seeds of thanks and praise.
Articulate with measured sound
the song that fills all things.
for even atoms dance around and solid matter sings.

2. With pipes of tin and wood restart
the fire the prophets knew and fan the flame within the heart to do what God would do.
Pull out the stops that train the ear —
the flute and reed
to listen and more subtly hear God's call through human need.

3. With pipes of tin and wood repeat the music danced and played to welcome home and warmly greet the prodigal who strayed.
Let healing harmonies release
the hurt the heart compiles that God through music may increase the grace that reconciles.

4. With pipes of tin and wood disclose the song
the world has blurred,
the hymn of life and love that flows
from God's renewing word.
Then boldly open wide the swell and with a trumpet call announce the news we thirst to tell:
That Christ is Lord of all.

Words: Thomas H. Troeger

Let the Peoples Praise You, O God

Bruce Neswick

Sung by the All Saints' Parish Choir; Dr. JooSoo Son, organ; and Dr. Jason A. Wright, conductor

Let the peoples praise you, O God: let all the people praise you. May God be merciful to us and bless us, show us the light of his countenance and come to us. Let your ways be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations. Let the peoples praise you, O God: let all the people praise you. Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity, and guide all the nations upon earth. Let the peoples praise you, O God: let all the people praise you. The earth has brought forth her increase; may God, our own God, give us his blessing. God shall bless us: and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him. Let the peoples praise you, O God: let all the people praise you. Text: Psalm 67

HYMN

When in our music God is glorified

Tune: Engelberg

Dr. Jason A. Wright, organ

1. When in our music God is glorified,
and adoration leaves no room for pride,
it is as though the whole creation cried, Hallelujah!

3. So has the church, in liturgy and song,
in faith and love, through centuries of wrong,
borne witness to the truth in every tongue:
Hallelujah!

2. How often, making music, we have found a new dimension in the world of sound, as worship moved us to a more profound Hallelujah!

4. And did not Jesus sing a Psalm that night when utmost evil strove against the Light?
Then let us sing, for whom he won the fight:
Hallelujah!

5. Let every instrument be tuned for praise!
Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always:
Hallelujah! Amen.
